

GOVERNMENT OF ANDHRAPRADESH
PANCHAYATRAI AND RURAL DEVELOPMENT(E.I) DEPARTMENT

Memo.No.PRR01-2775451/E.I/A2/2025

Dt.01-04-2025

Sub: PR&RD Dept. Allotment of Engineering Assistants to RWS&S Department on permanent basis - For effective implementation of RWS&S prestigious schemes - Request - Remarks called for - Regarding.

Ref: From the ENC, RWS., Lr.No. PRR06/50/2025-SO&B-ECRWSS, Dt.24.03.2025.

A copy of the reference cited is enclosed herewith to the Engineer-in-Chief, PR., wherein the Engineer-in-Chief, RWS has stated that the shortage of technical personnel causes frequent delays in the implementation, operation, and maintenance of projects in the RWS Department, while the Government's growing focus on sanitation has significantly expanded the department's responsibilities, requiring specialized technical support and additional personnel for effective implementation of the schemes. Hence, she has requested for allotment of Engineering Assistants to RWS Dept. for effective implementation of several schemes such as Amruthadhara, Jal Jeevan Mission, Water Grid, NREGS, Naadu Nedu, etc, on permanent basis along with their establishment and service matters for better implementation of rural drinking water schemes.

2. The Engineer-in-Chief, PR is therefore requested to provide comprehensive details regarding the Engineering Assistants Gr.II including the total number of Engineering Assistants working in the State, any surplus, whether these posts were previously allocated to other departments, and any proposals or discussions held with the Director of the GSWS Department concerning this issue and further requested to furnish a report including the said details along with the remarks on the letter of ENC, RWS and relevant documents, to Govt. for taking further action in the matter.
